

Safe2Say Something Reporting System

A.W. Beattie Career Center is partnering with the Pennsylvania Attorney General's Office to introduce a new reporting system for non-emergency tips on bullying, intimidation, harassment, weapons, drugs or other threats in the communities that we serve.

With the Safe2Say Something reporting system, you can visit a website, make a phone call or download a mobile app and confidentially report any of these non-emergency concerns or issues.

This system is NOT an emergency hotline. If you need immediate assistance and/or reporting an event that could immediately affect the school community, please call 911.

Here's how to report:

- Website: <https://www.safe2saypa.org/tip/>
- 1-844-SAF2SAY (1-844-723-2729)
- Mobile App: Available for iOS and Android devices

A.W. Beattie Career Center encourages students, staff and community members to report information about any non-urgent illegal activity such as vandalism, theft, the sale of drugs or information about crimes that are being planned. Students who discover information on social media platforms like Snapchat, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram or You Tube and confidentially report a tip could help prevent a tragedy. Once again, for urgent matters or emergency situations, please call 911 and speak to a trained dispatcher.

A.W. Beattie Career Center respects and cares for your privacy. Any information reported will be kept strictly confidential. We encourage you to use the Safe2Say Something system responsibly. Adverse consequences, including serious criminal charges (see below), may result from the submission of a false report. All submissions can be traced in the event of misuse or abuse of the reporting system.
